

AUGUST 2018 • MADELINE ISLAND EVENTS

- 1- MIWP presents In A Patch of Goldenrod - Taking a closer look..., Lecture free & open to the public at Madeline Island Museum, 7pm
- 2- Community Bazaar, Under Three Tents and in the Fellowship Hall, 10am-2pm
- 2- Pop-up live music concert with Ric Gillman in the ARTBAR, 1-4pm
- 2- LPC Performing Arts Affiliate Free Concert: Room 2 Groove, Rec Center, 5:30pm-7:30pm
- 3 - Community Bazaar, Under Three Tents and in the Fellowship Hall, 10am-2pm
- 3- Creating Art from Fiber, Felt makers Kathleen McCartin and Joan Slack will demonstrate the magic of using fleece to create beautiful artworks and collage at Woods Hall, 1-3:30 pm
- 3- Pottery wheel demo w/ Berry Burnstein at Bell Street Gallery, Noon -4pm
- 3- Positivity Children's Theatre performance, La Pointe School, 7pm
- 4- Point to LaPointe, 2.1 Open Water Swim to Madeline Island, 7-10am
- 4- The Cool Down, first ever post Point to La Pointe party at Joni's Beach, 12-4pm featuring NATTY NATION! $5 Open to the public, family friendly.
Point to La Pointe Packet Pickup, at Wild Rice Retreat, is open to the public! Thurs Aug 3, 2-10pm
Wine bar 4-10, light bites, live music, chair massage 3-8, jewelry sale, apparel and more!
- 4- Medicinal and Edible Plant Identification Walk & Medicine Making at Madeline Island Library, 10am-Noon
- 4-Meet graphic designer and photographer Jamey Penney-Ritter, autographing her wonderful posters at the Madeline Island Candles shop, 11am-3pm
- 4- Graveside Service for Mike Fahien at Greenwood Cemetary, 1pm
- 4- Positivity Children's Theatre performance, La Pointe School, 2pm
- 4- Pottery raku demo with Berry Burnstein at Bell Street Gallery, Noon -4pm
- 4- Pop-up live music concert with Ric Gillman at Bell Street Gallery, 3-6pm
- 4- Live music w/ Prudence Johnson w/ farm-to-table food available from Farmhouse at Bell Street Gallery, 7-9pm
- 4- "Felting a Landscape" w/ Joan Slack. Learn the process of needle felting a picture with wool fleece. $25 class fee plus $15 materials fee at Woods Hall, 12:30-4:30 pm
- 4- Betsy Knode Newton will offer a presentation to all ages on the writing of her book Pink Bear, which highlights the joys of collaboration and creativity at Woods Hall, 11am-Noon.
- 5- Labyrinth Open House, 11:30am-1:30pm
- 5- Live music in the ARTBAR with Jim Kasperson and Gingie Ward, 1-2pm
- 5- Positivity Children's Theatre performance, La Pointe School, 7pm
- 6- Pop-up live music concert with Ric Gillman in the ARTBAR, 1-4pm
- 7- "Community Weave-In: the Colors of Summer" : Join fiber artist Mary Burns to create woven panels at a Community Weave-In! Learn basic weaving skills while working with friends and family to create collaborative weavings for the island. FREE at Woods Hall, 10:30am-3:00pm.
- 7- Pop-up live music concert TBD at Bell Street Gallery
- 7- Abstract acrylic painting demo with Island artist Stevenjohn McHugh at Bell Street Galelry, 1-3pm;
- 7- Water-color painting Class with Janet Moore (all ages welcome but register early at 715-747-2092). Spaces are still available at Bell Street Gallery, 4:30-8pm
- 8- Women of Madeline Island Speaker Series, Lecture free and open to the public at Madeline Island Museum, 7pm
- 8- "Tapestry Weaving Workshop" with Mary Burns :: This is an introductory tapestry weaving workshop. Learn basic tapestry techniques while working on individual frame looms. We will work primarily with colorful wool yarn and possibly some cotton, linen and bling! $35 class fee plus $10 materials fee at Woods Hall, 9am-3pm.

MADELINE ISLAND

→ → → → → come over.

